PART—V

PROCEDURE FOR RECRUITMENT BY PROMOTION

23. Criteria, Eligibility and procedure for promotion.— (1) As soon as the Appointing Authority determines the number of vacancies under rule 9 and decides that a certain number of posts are required to be filled by promotion, it shall prepare a correct and complete list containing names up to five times the number of vacancies out of senior-most persons who are qualified under these rules for promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or on the basis of merit to the class of posts concerned.

(2) The persons enumerated in Column 5 of the Schedule shall be eligible for promotion to posts specified against them in Column 2 thereof to the extent indicated in column 3 subject to their possessing minimum qualifications and experience on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection as specified in Column 6.

(3) No person shall be considered for promotion unless he is substantively appointed and confirmed on the next lower post. If no person substantive in next lower post is eligible for promotion, persons who have been appointed on such posts on officiating basis after selection in accordance with one of the methods of recruitment or under any Service Rules promulgated under proviso to Article 309 of the constitution of India may be considered for promotion on officiating basis only in the order of seniority in which they would have been had they been substantive on the said lower post.

Explanation :— In case direct recruitment to a post has been made earlier than regular selection for promotion in a particular year, such of the persons who are or were eligible for appointment to that post by both the methods of recruitment and have been appointed by direct recruitment first, shall be considered for promotion.

(4) Selection for promotion in the regular line of promotion from the post not included in the Service to the lowest post in the Service shall be made strictly on the basis of merit.

(5) Selection for promotion from the lowest post to the next higher post in the Service shall be made solely on the basis of seniority-cum-merit from amongst the persons who have put in at least five years' service unless a different period is prescribed elsewhere in these rules, on the first day of the month of april of the year of selection on the post from which selection is to be made :

Provided that in the event of non-availability of the persons with the requisite period of service of five years, the Committee may consider the persons having less than the prescribed period of service, if they fulfil the qualifications, experience and other conditions for promotion prescribed elsewhere in these rules and found otherwise suitable for promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit :

Provided further that in respect of posts included in the Service in which the method of recruitment to the lowest posts are required to be filled on the basis of seniority-cum-merit under this sub-rule, the Committee may select for promotion such persons of outstanding merit available with the zone of consideration, who may not be selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit, to the extent of one-fourth of the number of vacancies to be filled in by promotion and if the number of vacancies exceeds one but is less than four, the committee may select one person on the basis of merit alone and if the vacancies are more than four and the calculation of the number of vacancies to be filled by merit alone according to the aforesaid basis results in a fraction the Committee may select one more person against a fraction of half or more. On being so selected, for the purpose of determination of seniority, such persons shall be deemed to have been selected on the basis of seniority-cum-merit.

(6) Selection for promotion to all other higher posts in the Service shall be made on the basis of merit alone.

(7) The persons having been selected and appointed by promotion to a post in the Service on the basis of merit, shall be eligible for promotion to the next higher post which is to be filled in by merit only when they have put in after regular selection at least five years service unless a higher period of service is prescribed elsewhere in these rules, on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection on the post from which selection is to be made :

Provided that the condition of five years' service shall not be applicable to a person if any person junior to him is eligible for consideration for promotion on the basis of merit :

Provided further that in the event of non-availability of persons, equal to the number of vacancies to be filled in, eligible for promotion in the category of posts next lower from which promotion is made, the Committee may consider the persons having less than five years' service if they are found otherwise eligible and suitable for promotion on the basis of merit alone.

Explanation:—If any doubt arises about the categorisation of the post as the lowest, next higher post in the Service, the matter shall be referred to the Government in the Department of Personnel, whose decision thereon shall be final.

(8) The zone of eligibility for promotion shall be five times the number of vacancies to be filled in on the basis of seniority-cum-merit or merit as the case may be :

Provided that in case of no-availability of sufficient number of suitable persons for selection on the basis of merit, the Committee may at its discretion consider persons of outstanding merit outside the zone of eligibility but falling within six times the number of vacancies to be filled in on the basis of merit.

(9) A Committee consisting of the Chairman of the Commission or a Member thereof nominated by him as Chairman, @ Secretary to the Government in the Home Department, the Director or the Commandant General as the case may be, Special Secretary to the Government in the Department of Personnel or his representative not below the rank of Deputy Secretary and the Deputy Secretary to the Government Incharge, Home Guards and Civil Defence in the Home Department who shall also be @ Non-member-Secretary, shall consider the case of all the senior-most persons who are eligible and qualified for promotion to the class of post concerned under these rules, interviewing such of them as it may deem necessary and shall prepare a list containing names of the suitable persons equal to the number of existing vacancies and the vacancies anticipated to occur during the next twelve months after the determination of vacancies. The Committee shall also prepare a separate list containing names of persons "equal to 50% of the persons selected in the afore said list or select one more person if the number of vacancies is one only", who may be considered suitable to fill temporary or permanent vacancies, which may occur till the next meeting of the Committee, on a temporary or officiating basis and the list so prepared shall be reviewed and revised every year and shall remain in force until it is so reviewed and revised. The lists so prepared on the basis of merit shall be arranged in the order of preference and the lists prepared on the basis of seniority-cum-merit shall be arranged in order of seniority on the category of post from which selection is to be made. Such lists shall be sent to the Appointing Authority together with the Annual Confidential Rolls and Personal Files of all the candidates included in them as also of those not selected, if any.

Explanation:—The list of preference shall classify the officers in order as 'outstanding' 'very good' and 'good' on the basis of merit. In each class the officers shall maintain their inter se seniority of the next below grade.

§ Provided that in case any Member or Member Secretary, as the case may be, constituting the Committee has not been appointed to the post concerned, the officer holding charge of the post for the time being shall be the Member or Member-Secretary as the case may be of the Committee.

(10) Where consultation with the Commission is necessary the lists prepared by the Committee shall be forwarded to the Commission by the Appointing Authority alongwith the Personal Files and Annual Confidential Rolls of all the persons whose names have been considered by the Committee.

(11) The Commission shall consider the lists prepared by the Committee alongwith other relevant documents received from the Appointing Authority, and unless any change is considered necessary, shall approve the lists. In case the Commission consider it necessary to make any change in the lists received from the Appointing Authority, it shall inform the Appointing Authority of the changes proposed by it. After taking into account of the comments of the Commission, if any, the Appointing Authority may approve the lists finally with such modifications, as may, in its opinion, be just and proper.

(12) Appointments shall be made by the Appointing Authority taking persons out of the lists finally approved under the preceding sub-rule (11) in the order in which they have been placed in the lists, till such lists are exhausted or reviewed and revised, as the case may be.

PART—VIAPPOINTMENT, PROBATION AND CONFIRMATION

24. Appointment to Service.—Appointment to the posts in service by direct recruitment or by promotion, as the case may be, shall be made by the Appointing Authority on occurrence of substantive vacancies from the candidates selected under rule 22 in the order of merit and from the person selected under rule 23 of these rules and from the persons adjudged suitable under provided (iii) to rule 6.

25. Urgent temporary appointment.—(1) A vacancy in the Service which cannot be filled in immediately either by direct recruitment or by promotion under the rules may be filled in by the Appointing Authority by appointment to the post by Promotion or by appointing temporarily thereto person eligible for direct recruitment to the Service, where such direct recruitment has been provided under the provisions of these rules:

Provided that such an appointment will not be continued beyond a period of one year without referring the case to the Commission for concurrence where such concurrence is necessary and shall be terminated immediately on its refusal to concur:

Provided further that in respect of a post in the Service for which both the above methods of recruitment have been prescribed the Appointing Authority or the authority competent to make appointment shall not save with the specific permission of the Government in the Department of Personnel, fill the temporary vacancy against the direct recruitment quota by a whole time appointment for a period exceeding three months, otherwise than out of persons eligible for direct recruitment and after a shortterm advertisement.

(2) In the event of non-availability of suitable persons fulfilling the requirements of eligibility for promotion, Government may, notwithstanding the condition of eligibility for promotion required under sub-rule (1) above lay down general instruction for grant of permission to fill the vacancies on urgent temporary basis, subject to such conditions and restrictions regarding pay and other allowances as it may direct. Such appointments shall however, be subject to concurrence of the Commission as required under the said sub-rule.

^x 26. Seniority:—Seniority of persons appointed to the lowest post of the Service or lowest categories of post in each of the Group/Section of the Service, as the case may be, shall be determined from the date of confirmation of such persons to the said post but in respect of persons appointed by promotion to other higher posts in the Service of other higher categories of posts in each of the Group/Section in the Service, as the case may be, shall be determined from the date of their regular selection to such posts. "Seniority in each category of the Service shall be determined by the year of substantive appointment to a post in the particular category."
