

Centre Programs

- a) The Centre is working to develop the curriculum on the topics following:-
 - ❖ "Investigation of Land Dispute Cases, for in-service Police Personnel"
- b) Design and execute training programs in Following areas
 - Community Policing
 - Investigation Management
 - Forensic tools available and their legal applicability
 - Laws and latest judgments concerning policing
 - Laws related to children
- c) Provide guest faculty to Police Training Centres
- d) Organize workshops, conferences and seminars like this two-day national seminar on "PHILOSOPHY, STRATEGY, TACTICS AND INSTITUTIONALISATION OF COMMUNITY POLICING" on January 16 & 17, 2015.

Future Projects

- ❖ Running Online Training Programs for In-service Police Personnel'
- ❖ Providing Certificate Courses, Diplomas in disciplines related to Police studies.
- ❖ Conducting research and building knowledge data base about Police Studies

Contact Us

Dr. Bhupendra Singh, IPS

Director, Centre for Police Studies

Pro Vice Chancellor, SPUP, Jodhpur

Ms. Sheetal Makhija,

Assistant Professor, Criminology

Centre Coordinator, centreforpolicestudies@policeuniversity.ac.in

Sardar Patel University of Police, Security and Criminal Justice, Daijar, Jodhpur-342304

CENTRE FOR POLICE STUDIES

SARDAR PATEL UNIVERSITY OF POLICE,
SECURITY AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE, JODHPUR

(A State University)

Centre Programs

- a) The Centre is working to develop the curriculum on the topics following:-
 - ❖ "Investigation of Land Dispute Cases, for in-service Police Personnel"
- b) Design and execute training programs in Following areas
 - Community Policing
 - Investigation Management
 - Forensic tools available and their legal applicability
 - Laws and latest judgments concerning policing
 - Laws related to children
- c) Provide guest faculty to Police Training Centres
- d) Organize workshops, conferences and seminars like this two-day national seminar on "PHILOSOPHY, STRATEGY, TACTICS AND INSTITUTIONALISATION OF COMMUNITY POLICING" on January 16 & 17, 2015.

Future Projects

- ❖ Running Online Training Programs for In-service Police Personnel'
- ❖ Providing Certificate Courses, Diplomas in disciplines related to Police studies.
- ❖ Conducting research and building knowledge data base about Police Studies

Contact Us

Dr. Bhupendra Singh, IPS

Director, Centre for Police Studies

Pro Vice Chancellor, SPUP, Jodhpur

Ms. Sheetal Makhija,

Assistant Professor, Criminology

Centre Coordinator, centreforpolicestudies@policeuniversity.ac.in

Sardar Patel University of Police, Security and Criminal Justice, Daijar, Jodhpur-342304

CENTRE FOR POLICE STUDIES

SARDAR PATEL UNIVERSITY OF POLICE,
SECURITY AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE, JODHPUR

(A State University)

Dr. Bhupendra Singh, IPS,

ADG, Rajasthan Police

Director's Message

“The University established this Centre in early 2014 with an aim to conduct studies and run educational & training programs in Police Studies. The functioning of the Centre would include facilitating and conducting research in Criminal Justice System and Policing issues, developing curricula for practitioners in the domain of Security and Criminal Justice and to provide technical training relevant to the present day needs of the officers in the field. It plans to become one of the leading Centres of its genre with an established international profile. Our aim is to conduct empirical, and policy related research, which would be interdisciplinary and shall include inputs from disciplines like Criminology, Psychology, Law and Sociology”.

Our Vision

“To create an academic Centre of excellence for Police Studies and Training through educational programs, research and extension activities for enhancement of effectiveness of present day policing”

Our Mission

To provide institutional support for conducting interdisciplinary training programs for state police departments across the country, Central forces (BSF, CISF, CRPF etc), the academia and to facilitate the police professionals to equip themselves with intellectual, professional and moral competencies for combating the emerging challenges to security, justice and public safety in free democratic and diverse society

OBJECTIVES OF THE CENTRE

- The University is an authorized base to have a centre for developing Advanced Manpower Certificate programmes in Police Studies. Also one of its important mandates includes conducting interdisciplinary training programs for state police departments across the country, Central forces (BSF, CISF, CRPF etc) and the academia.
- The Centre's collaboration; both existing and future, with the other sister agencies would ensures efficiency of existing police training programs with special emphasis on devising domain specific training programs for in-service police professionals. The working includes developing various academic and professional programmes and conducting degree/diploma/certificate and other short term courses.
- The working also includes funding and developing specific police studies programs and campaigns. Also, collating and analyzing crime statistics, organizing workshops, seminars and conferences etc and undertaking studies, research, consultancies and publications.
- Other important functions of the Centre include developing safety education material for schools and local communities, developing awareness campaigns, conducting short term courses for in service personnel and professional programmes for students.
- The working of the Centre also includes providing facilities for research work to undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers in the areas concerned as to publish research outcomes results through Journal publications and Conference proceedings. The Centre endeavors to become financially self-sustaining in the future.

Collaborations

- North Eastern Police Academy, Shillong
- Central Detective Training School (BPR&D)

Dr. Bhupendra Singh, IPS,

ADG, Rajasthan Police

Director's Message

“The University established this Centre in early 2014 with an aim to conduct studies and run educational & training programs in Police Studies. The functioning of the Centre would include facilitating and conducting research in Criminal Justice System and Policing issues, developing curricula for practitioners in the domain of Security and Criminal Justice and to provide technical training relevant to the present day needs of the officers in the field. It plans to become one of the leading Centres of its genre with an established international profile. Our aim is to conduct empirical, and policy related research, which would be interdisciplinary and shall include inputs from disciplines like Criminology, Psychology, Law and Sociology”.

Our Vision

“To create an academic Centre of excellence for Police Studies and Training through educational programs, research and extension activities for enhancement of effectiveness of present day policing”

Our Mission

To provide institutional support for conducting interdisciplinary training programs for state police departments across the country, Central forces (BSF, CISF, CRPF etc), the academia and to facilitate the police professionals to equip themselves with intellectual, professional and moral competencies for combating the emerging challenges to security, justice and public safety in free democratic and diverse society

OBJECTIVES OF THE CENTRE

- The University is an authorized base to have a centre for developing Advanced Manpower Certificate programmes in Police Studies. Also one of its important mandates includes conducting interdisciplinary training programs for state police departments across the country, Central forces (BSF, CISF, CRPF etc) and the academia.
- The Centre's collaboration; both existing and future, with the other sister agencies would ensures efficiency of existing police training programs with special emphasis on devising domain specific training programs for in-service police professionals. The working includes developing various academic and professional programmes and conducting degree/diploma/certificate and other short term courses.
- The working also includes funding and developing specific police studies programs and campaigns. Also, collating and analyzing crime statistics, organizing workshops, seminars and conferences etc and undertaking studies, research, consultancies and publications.
- Other important functions of the Centre include developing safety education material for schools and local communities, developing awareness campaigns, conducting short term courses for in service personnel and professional programmes for students.
- The working of the Centre also includes providing facilities for research work to undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers in the areas concerned as to publish research outcomes results through Journal publications and Conference proceedings. The Centre endeavors to become financially self-sustaining in the future.

Collaborations

- North Eastern Police Academy, Shillong
- Central Detective Training School (BPR&D)